REBUILDING JOB TO TAKE 100,000 MEN 20 YEARS

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—Twenty years of laber by an army of 100,900 men will be required to restore northera France to its pre-war condition. Stephane Lansanno, editor of Le Matin, of Paris, told an audience here. France will not furnish that army nor will she supply the material necessary to reconstruct the 350,000 buildings destroyed by the German Invalers. Germany must do that, he declared. He warned against the appeals for clemency from Germany's women, "the women who sput on the prisoners of war. Now they whine for a medification of the terms of the armistice," he said, "and say they are hungry. There is plenty of feed in Germany to feed the people."

central High may also receive a share of the Smith-Hughes vocational training fund, upon the recommendation of Prof. E. S. Maclin, federal inspector, and representative of the United States bureau of education, who made a thorough inspection of the technical and scientific departments of the school Monday.

Although the time schedule of Central High does not at present conform to the requirements of the Smith-Highes bill, it could easily be arranged to do so, according to C. P. Jester, principal of the school, and its scientific and technical departments are altendy acknowledged to be among the finest of any high school in the South. Whether two Memphis high schools will be allowed to receive an equal amount of the Smith-Hughes fund has not been definitely decided, although it is the opinion of Prof. Maclin that this would be possible as long as both schools met the requirements of the Smith-Hughes bill.

NEW YORK COTTON.

NEW YORK NOV 25.—The reactions of late last week were followed by renewed firmness in the cotton market during today's early trading. Frivate trop estimates were published before the opening, one of them by a preminent New Orleans authority placing the yield at 11, 320,00 bales, excluding linters, while the other from an equally prominent Memphis source, made it 11, 700, 100. Both these figures were below the last official indication and buying also was promoted by firm cables, built-ish apot advices and reports that the governors of eight cotton states had issued a proclamation urging that cotton be held for 35 cents a pound. The market opened steady at an advance of 15 to 25 points and sold 20 to 30 points net higher before the end of the market opened steady at an advance of 15 to 25 points and sold 20 to 30 points net higher before the end of the market opened steady at an advance of 15 to 25 points and sold 20 to 30 points net higher before the end of the market opened steady at an advance of 15 to 25 points and sold 20 to 30 points net higher while January advanced to 28,90c before the end of the market opened steady at an advance of 15 to 25 points and sold 20 to 30 points net higher while January advanced to 28,20c and March 10 27,50c, making net gains of 30 to 40 points. There was sufficient realizing to cause some irregularity during the morning and the disposition to take profits was increased by reports that three of the Pail River mills would close down tonight for an indefinite period owing to lack of demand. On the whole, however, ofterings were readily absorbed and the market held within 4 or 5 points of the best early in the noon hour.

NEW ORLEANS OUTTON.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 25.—A private bureau crop estimate of 11,520,000 bales and the entire absence of any deliveries on this, the first notice day for December, caused a rise of 23 to 58 points in the conton market today in the first half hour of trading. The continued cold and wet weather over the belt also stimulated buying to some extent.

Unfavorable weather in the cotton region contributed to the steadiness and in the trading up to noon the advance was widened to 37 to 84 points.

New Orleans.—H. & H. Beer thus summarize the bullish features of the ruston situation; According to the U.S. census hureau records the world's broductlen of cotton, exclusive of linters in the United States, for the years 1915, 1916 and 1917, was $4.45,000 hales, whereas consumption for the same pariod, exclusive of linters in the U.S. was $8.892,000 bales, or 445,000 shales more than the production. That is why cotton advanced during the war. Returns for this year are not available as yet, and when obtainable will likely make a stronger showing. That help the case, and the fact that European mill succks of all kinds at close of last July were only about 11 per cant of what they were four years ago all kinds figuring 250,000 against 3.175,000 bales, and the fact that export from America thus far this season ar $34,000 bales smaller than to corresponding date last year, tends to accentuate the bullish situation abroad.

Ontous Cwt., sacked, white. $3.000 cond. Chicago.—Germany is badiy torn up and just how large the United States food exports are to proceed is not clear. Many critics ask if European needs are exaggerated. Boisheviki in Russia say they have enough grain to feed their followers through the winter. Other reports say Germany has more food than in 1817. Lloyd George declares for a black-to-the-land movement in England and says England must raise foods to the limit. The Tribune reviews are bearish, believing selling would be enormous if not retrieted to 200,000 bushels per each account, stating that a targe number of Westerners are talking lower prices. Newspapers say seaboard has bought a lot of December outs. It will take three or four months for United States foods to reach North Russia. Germany seems to have enough for the winter. The disturbances all over Europe suggest United States winter exports may be far below recent guesses.—Wagner & Co.
